WORK SESSION TO DISCUSS TWO PROPOSED CHARTER AMENDMENTS

(March 14, 2005) The Frisco City Council will host another work session to discuss two proposed charter amendments.

The work session will be held Thursday, March 17, beginning at 7 p.m. in the Council Chambers at the Frisco Municipal Complex, 8750 McKinney Road.

The proposed amendments address "Informed Consent" and "Homebuilder's Surety Bonds".

The proposed charter amendments were submitted by two petitions from a political action committee known as "Take Back Your Rights."

This marks the second work session on the two proposed charter amendments. The first work session was held January 19.
